NOTICE TO COUNSELS AND LITIGANTS

In order to modernise and adapt our procedure to new technologies, please note that henceforth, all Court of Appeal judgments will be sent to counsels and unrepresented parties by email.

It is important that you include your email address on the back of your proceedings in addition to your lawyer code, your telephone number and your facsimile number.

If no email address is provided, a copy of the judgment will be sent by facsimile or by mail.

At a party's request, the Clerk of the Court will send one certified copy of the judgment at no cost. All additional copies or copies requested by a third party may be obtained subject to the payment of published rates.

Finally, please note that a free copy of all of Court of Appeal judgments may be obtained by accessing the following site: www.jugements.qc.ca.
